HOW THEY FLOUNDER.

Various Reasons Advanced by Democrats Why They Were Defeated

Next to the funniest thing in the world—the funniest being a modern Democratic National Campaign—is the effort of the press to tell an uninquiring public “how it happened.” They advocate “Democratic principles” and make post election explanation with equal felicity and harmony. One paper says it was because the Democratic nominee placed too much stress on the foreign policy of the dominant party, and another says it was due to the lack of emphasis on the foreign policy. Another says too much stress was placed on the Tariff question and another says the Tariff should have been made the issue.

We were told before the election that there never was such an exhibition of manly courage and political wisdom as that post nomination gold telegram of Mr. Parker's. All the wisdom of Solomon, all the generalship of Alexander the Great, all the eloquence of Demosthenes, all the virtue of the regenerated Paul centered in that telegram. Now they tell us the gold telegram defeated Parker! It what we have been trying to say needs illustration or confirmation let the reader examine these two editorials in the Hartford Herald. Hear the Herald:

“We wish to mildly call the attention to the fact that every time the Democratic party has made a surrender of its principles it has lost at the polls. This has occurred in the Greeley, Hancock and Parker campaigns.”

The other editorial is as follows: “Nobody ever retired from a Presidential race with greater respect and honor than does Judge Parker. He fought a good fight, he kept the faith, and to him belongs that reverence which is accord to the great and good in history.”

In these two brief paragraphs we have great and good Parker leading the Democratic hosts, (who have so wantonly forsaken the erstwhile principles of Democracy) and fighting the good fight and keeping the faith. It would be very difficult for the editor of the Herald to write two more contradictory paragraphs.

The Herald is a Democrat to the trade. What makes one party the Republican party and the other party the Democratic party if it is not because of certain well defined political principles for which each party is supposed to stand? Why did not the Herald say before the election the Democrats had forsaken their principles? Had the Herald been less the politician and more the patriotic citizen it would have done so. Shame on such political chicanery. The editor of the Herald poses as a christian gentleman, which we have always chosen to consider him, and yet, during the recent National campaign he abused and misrepresented the good President of the United States and used all the intrigues of a political truckler to induce the people to vote for a party which he now says had no principles, and which he must have known at the time to have none.

We think the Herald is somewhat in error about the party's abandoning its principles, however. The party has had but few principles which it seems to care to stand by in recent years, and they may be indicated as follows: 1st. Oppose everything good or bad the party in power proposes. 2nd. Maintain at all hazards the principle of “yellow dog,” or “Jim McKenzie Democracy.”

3rd. Hate the negro with all your soul, mind and strength and teach your neighbor to do likewise.

“AN OBSERVER.”

The fiction of business has not yet fully ripened. But on the way up is “Barlow and the Octopus,” by Arthur H. Vandenberg. It appears in Lippincott's Magazine's Christmas number and will arrest men of affairs by its cleverness.

KILLED BY ACCIDENT.

Samuel Patton's Head Almost Blown Off By Accidental Discharge of Gun.

Monday afternoon while out squirrel hunting Samuel Patton, a prosperous farmer of the West Hartford neighborhood, was accidentally killed by Owen Taylor, the seventeen-year-old son of Henry Taylor. The two had been out hunting all the morning and had about completed their day's sport. They had just elcted a squirrel and both had been trying to get a shot at it which Patton finally succeeded in doing. He killed the squirrel and went to pick it up. Young Taylor followed closely behind Patton and when Patton reached down to get the game both barrels of Taylor's gun were discharged the contents taking effect just above Patton's ear tearing the whole side and top of his head.

Young Taylor fled from the spot and informed the nearby residents what had occurred. For a time the young man was frantic and almost crazed with grief.

The body of Patton was removed to his home where friends prepared it for interment which took place Tuesday at Liberty cemetery.

FIRE AT LIVERMORE.

Thought to Have Been the Work of a Firebug---No Insurance on Building or Stock.

The large sawmill of Col. R. E. Hackett at Livermore burned to the ground last Friday morning at 1:30. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The fire was first discovered by the watchman at the Geneva mill which is east of Hackett mill and the alarm given but the fire was under such headway that it was impossible to save the mill so the people went to work to keep the other buildings from burning and confined the fire to the mill.

The loss consist of the mill, dry house and storage room. In the dry house $2,000 worth of rims and spokes burned, making total loss of $7,000 or $8,000, with no insurance.

Col. Hackett is one of the oldest mill men, having been engaged in business at Livermore for over forty five years. He has been rather unfortunate in the way of fires, this being the fourth mill to burn, and one explosion of the boiler, making five heavy losses for him.

Mr. Hackett it is said is confident that this was the act of an incendiary as they examined the mill closely for fire that night before going to their home and the fire originated in a part of the mill where there was no chance for fire. There have been some belts cut and other damage done around the mill lately, which confirms Mr. Hackett in the belief of its having been set on fire. They had no night watchman, but a colored man who is their engineer, slept in his office and had to be awoken to get him out of the building. Mr. Hackett and his son, Edgar, say they will rebuild the mill at once.

Financially Embarrassed.

“It is reported,” says an exchange, “that John D. Rockefeller's income during the last year has dropped to $37,000,000.”

This is terrible. If it is true that Uncle Jack cleared only $35,000,000 last year, there is nothing for him to do but cut down expenses.

We are willing, however, to do our share, and get up a popular subscription for his relief, and we would suggest that little Jock Rockefeller pass around the plate to his Bible class for the benefit of his financially embarrassed father.

COL. BRECKENRIDGE DEAD.

Many Friends Pay Last Tribute to The Distinguished Dead.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 21.—All that was mortal of Col. William Campbell Preston Breckenridge was lowered to earth this afternoon surrounded by his comrades who fought with him in the struggles of the North and the South; by the friends who have known and loved him and who have been associated with him during many years. The busy life of the city was hushed while the oldest citizen cannot remember when such homage was paid to live or dead as marked the burial of Lexington's most distinguished citizen. Those who loved him most came laden with their tributes. Those who knew him best in earlier days have passed the great beyond, nearly all, but those remaining to-day gently carried the remains of their old commander to the earth he lived so well.

The funeral procession formed at the home at 1:30 o'clock and proceeded to the church. The procession was led by infantry drum corps draped in black. Then came the Knights Templar in full regalia, each with a red flower and a tern plumed on the breast. Following the Templars came the Masons, they, too, being in full regalia with a green fern plumed on the breast of each. Behind them came the members of the Fayette county Bar Association, and following these were the city officials and Confederate Veterans.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Herbert Miller Lost His Life While on His Way to Linton, Ind.

Herbert Miller, son of Rev. Joshua Miller, of Hopewell neighborhood, was run down and killed by a train near Evansville last Friday. Young Miller and Harry Woodburn, of Rockport, were on their way to Linton, Ind., and were riding on a freight train between two box-cars. The coupling where they were standing broke. This let the cars come apart, Miller dropping to the track below. The cars released by the broken coupling caught him cutting and mangling his body almost beyond recognition, both legs, both arms and his head were severed from his body. His remains were brought home and interred Saturday.

ROOSEVELT'S CABINET

Hay, Taft, Metcalf, Wilson, Cortelyou, Shaw and Morton Will Remain in Office.

Washington, Nov. 21.—It is announced at the White House that Attorney General Moody has decided to remain in Roosevelt's new cabinet. The decision of Moody renders it reasonably certain that the heads of the six great executive department of the government have been determined on by the President for his next administration.

Hay will continue at the head of the State Department, Taft at the War Department, Metcalf at the Department of Commerce and Labor. Wilson is in the Agricultural Department, Cortelyou as Postmaster General, after the fourth of next March. It is expected Shaw will continue as Secretary of the Treasury. Morton as Secretary of the Navy. A change is expected in the Department of the Interior.

First-hand reports on the conditions in the Philippines are rare because so few observers know how to write vividly. In Lippincott's Magazine for December there is a significant and picturesque paper by a United States Army Lieutenant which tells in some powerful sentences the whole story of “The Regular and the Savage”—and a remarkable story it is.

HAPPY AND HEALTHY.

A Beautiful Canadian Girl Saved From Catarrh of the Lungs by Pe-ru-na.

MISS FLORENCE KENAH.

Miss Florence E. Kenah, 434 Maria street, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

“A few months ago I caught a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and remained there so persistently that I became alarmed. I took medicine without benefit, until my digestive organs became upset, and my head and back began to ache severely and frequently.”

“I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had little faith I felt so sick that I was ready to try anything. It brought me blessed relief at once, and I felt that I had the right medicine at last. Within three weeks I was completely restored and have enjoyed perfect health since.”

“I now have the greatest faith in Peruna.”

F. E. KENAH.

WOMEN should beware of contracting catarrh. The cold wind and rain, sleet and mud of winter are especially conducive to catarrhal derangements. Few women escape.

Upon the first symptoms of catching cold Peruna should be taken. It fortifies the system against colds and catarrh.

The following letter gives one young woman's experience with Peruna:

Miss Rose Gerbing is a popular society woman of Crown Point, Ind., and she writes the following:

“Recently I took a long drive in the country, and being too thinly clad I caught a bad cold which settled on my lungs, and which I could not seem to shake off. I had heard a great deal of Peruna for colds and catarrh and I bought a bottle to try. I am pleased that I did, for it brought speedy relief. It only took about two bottles, and I considered this money well spent.”

“You have a firm friend in me, and I not only advise its use to my friends, but have purchased several bottles to give to those without the means to buy, and have noticed without exception that it has brought about a speedy cure wherever it has been used.”—Miss Rose Gerbing.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

ONE week from next Monday Congress will convene in regular annual session. It will in all probability be in session until March 4th next.

Many questionable reports come from Cuba to the effect that the Cuban revolution is a failure. This, however, is doubtful. Notwithstanding, the Hebrews were not a nation of revolutionaries.

A MESSAGE of amity and good will from President Roosevelt to President Amador, of Panama, by William H. Taft. Who could import good will better?

EX-GOVERNOR FRANK S. BLACK, of New York, would fill with honor to himself and credit to the nation the Attorney-Generalship in President Roosevelt's cabinet.

A BRONZE statue of Frederick the Great was presented by Emperor William to the United States last Saturday. It was received by President Roosevelt on behalf of the country.

COL. W. J. BRYAN has made his initial move to regain control of what remains of the Democratic party. He has sent out quite a number of personal letters to prominent radical Democrats over the country inviting them to consider with him a plan for the re-organization of the shattered remnants of Democracy.

THE tender of the isthmian canal commissioners by President Roosevelt to Senator Cockrell, who has been Democracy's Senator from Missouri for a quarter of a century when there are thousands of good Republicans qualified for the place, does not indicate that the President is the excessive partisan that Democratic campaign howlers characterized him as being.

RECENT Democratic primaries over the State have been fraught with high-way robbery and the roughest rascality. The man who perpetrates fraud in a local convention or primary, invariably brings odium on himself and a curse on his party. The independent voter is so manifest in recent elections that stolen nominations are practically valueless. The fact that a man is a political scoundrel makes him none the less a scoundrel.

IT is urged by a leading Democrat of Georgia that the electors of all the Southern States cast their vote in the Electoral College for Roosevelt and thus make his election unanimous. He says that everyone concedes the President to be a good man, and a man of right intentions and that for the Democratic electors to cast their ballots for him would show the North that the South is not fighting them and that it is not the purpose of the South to make a mere factional opposition. Such a suggestion will of course meet the approbation of but few Southerners, but is not the distinguished Georgia Democrat about correct? Would it not indicate a submissive and obedient spirit on the part of the Southerner and in a measure reunite a sectional country?

ON to-morrow at one o'clock in the several precincts of the county the Republicans will meet to select delegates to the convention which meets here Monday to nominate candidates for the various county offices. The candidates for County Judge, County Attorney, Superintendent of Schools and Surveyor are without opposition. There is a sharp and spirited rivalry for the other nominations. All the aspirants are excellent gentlemen and it matters not who receives the nominations a splendid ticket is assured. Every Republican should attend his precinct convention and express his preference for the different offices. Every candidate who is defeated, for not all can win, should submit gracefully to the vicissitudes of political fortune. All the aspirants for the various nominations are practically young men with a bright political future before them. The county is safely Republican and will continue to be so if all Republicans will unite in their support of the party's nominees whoever they may be. Those who are not unsuccessful this time will have the best claim to endorsement four years hence.

THANKSGIVING which was observed throughout the country yesterday by devotion and thanks to the Deity for the blessings of the past year and by festivities and merriment has a significance beyond that usually ascribed to it. The custom is reputed to be of great antiquity, having been borrowed, as some declare, from the Mo-saic law. This, however, is doubtful. Notwithstanding, the Hebrews were not a nation of revolutionaries.

are inclined to the belief that the custom in the United States was imported from Holland, where the "Harvest Home" festival is an annual feature. Be this as it may, the origin of Thanksgiving day in the United States is due to the early settlers of New England. The pioneers being almost destitute of food or raiment had designated a day, which chanced to be Thursday, as a day of fasting and prayer, but on the day previous, ships laden with plenty of provision and supplies arrived and instead of fasting and prayer the day was spent in festivity and prayerful devotion. Throughout the colonial days in the New England States they were of annual occurrence, and during the Revolutionary War, congress repeatedly recommended the setting apart of a day to be devoted exclusively to Thanksgiving and prayer. Prior to the Civil War the Thanksgiving proclamations were issued by the Governors of these several States since that period the President issues the proclamation and designates the day.

TWO SALVATIONS.

Two Creations, One Heaven, Three Hells, Etc., Doctrine Taught By Rev. G. O. Barnes.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Nov. 22.—The Rev. George O. Barnes, the widely-known Kentucky evangelist, is preaching a series of seven sermons at the court house, the first sermon being delivered last Thursday evening. He has two creations in mind, one of heaven and one of hell. He says that the

Scrofula

Is very often acquired, though generally inherited. Bad hygiene, foul air, impure water, are among its causes. It is called "the soil for tubercles," and where it is allowed to remain tuberculosis or consumption is pretty sure to take root.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Removes every trace of scrofula. Get Hood's.

For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on Scrofula, No. 1. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

He denies vigorously that he is a universalist but prescribes that everybody will finally be saved.

That Rev. Barnes is a sobriety man is very evident and he says many things that anybody can hardly commend, but, to say the least, most of his doctrines can not be denominated orthodox.

It is Rev. Barnes' desire to deliver these seven sermons at the county seat of every county in the State. He has been engaged in his undertaking for three years and this is the twentieth county in which he has preached. He collects only enough money to pay current expenses. We ever else may be said of his sermons, they are decidedly entertaining and original.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Twenty-six "gushers," with a total initial capacity of 3,415 barrels, were drilled in during the past week in West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

The vacant Isthmian Canal Commissionership has been tendered Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, by the President, with the assurance that if he feels his health will not permit of acceptance he may have an interstate Commerce Commissionership. Senator Cockrell has not decided whether he will accept the offer.

There is a remarkable portrait of John D. Rockefeller as he is to-day, the first real portrait of the man taken in many years. Mr. Rockefeller was 65 years old on July 8th, but in this picture, hairless and haggard, he looks many years older.

Forest fires have been raging in Illinois, Kentucky and Kansas for the past few days. Much damage has been reported.

A larn hand made an unsuccessful attempt to rob a bank at Platte Center, Neb. After shooting and wounding the cashier he fled, but was quickly captured by a sheriff's posse.

William Holcraft, a well-known farmer of Scott county, went to his barn, cut his throat and then shot himself to the building. His charred remains were found in the debris.

On the ground that the director who authorized the loan was ignorant of the purpose for which the money was to be applied, an order was made in the Circuit Court at St. Louis directing the return of $75,000 the bond had placed on deposit by the Suburban Railroad Company to bribe members of the House of Delegates.

Death of S. B. Plummer. Roxey, Ky., Nov. 21, 1914.

Death has again visited our community and took from us our friend and neighbor, S. B. Plummer, who lived about four miles south-east of Horton.

Mr. Samuel B. Plummer was born near Noreck, Ohio county, December 25, 1839. Died November 13, 1914, age 64.

When twenty-two years old he was married to Miss Nancy M. Leach, and settled on the farm where he lived continuously till his death. He was the father of nine children, who are all living but one.

Consin Sam, as we called him, was an industrious, prosperous farmer; a good neighbor, a kind father and a good citizen. He was well and favorably known, and will be greatly missed.

We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to his bereaved family. J. I. LEACH.

Slain From Ambush. Morehead, Ky., Nov. 23.--Sebrin Profit, a prominent citizen of this place, was assassinated by unknown parties while hauling water from Trip-let Creek to a sawmill, one mile from here. He was shot with a forty-four caliber Winchester, the ball entering his back just below the right shoulder blade, and coming out below the right nipple.

Profit was evidently expecting trouble, as he had a Winchester rifle, a shotgun and pistol on the wagon with him when killed.

There is great excitement, and County Judge Tussey has wired Lexington for bloodhounds to run down the assassins.

Quick Arrest. J. A. Gullidge, of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kill's pain. 25c at Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro's. Drugist.

HOW TO STAY YOUNG.

Will Power a Large Factor in Keeping Away Decreptitude.

(M. M. Fenner's Cure.)

How old are you? The adage says that women are as old as they look and men as old as they feel. That's wrong. A man and woman are as old as they take themselves to be.

Growing old is largely a habit of the mind. "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he." If he begins shortly after middle age to imagine himself growing old he will be old.

To keep oneself from decrepitude is somewhat a matter of will power. The fates are kind to the man who hangs on to life with both hands. He who lets go will go. Death is slow only to tackle the tenacious.

Ponce de Leon searched in the wrong place for the fountain of youth. It is in oneself. One must keep oneself young inside, so that while "the outer man" perishes the inner man is renewed day by day.

When the human mind ceases to exert itself, when there is no longer an active interest in the affairs of this life, when the human stops reading and thinking and doing, the man, like a blasted tree, begins to die at the top.

You are as old as you think you are. Keep the harness on. Your job is not done.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all of its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. The December Smart Set.

The feature of the December Smart Set is undoubtedly the novelette, "Clavering and His Daughter," a story of Washington life, by a new author, Foxcroft Davis, whose meteoric entrance into the field of fiction is likely to be the sensation of the season. Totally unknown, this writer's first manuscript was not only accepted on sight by one of the most conservative publishing houses in America, but two new books were contracted for to form a series of three, all on the National politics and society centering at Washington. Meanwhile the Smart Set has secured the first work to be published under the name of Foxcroft Davis—a story of a remarkable man and a remarkable woman in the interesting setting of life at the Nation's capital, which no author has yet known so intimately and vitally. The appearance of this story is an event.

Sense and Nonsense.

That every ancient joke of the man who is accused of being indifferent to his wife, to the effect that "You never run after the street car after you have caught it," has been answered by Herbert Kelsey, the actor. The very happy married life of this player and his fellow player and wife, Edie Shannon, is well known. Mr. Kelsey says you may "catch the car," but he adds "you may fall off."

In this connection Mr. Kelsey also suggests the following unlucky number of methods of winning a wife and keeping a wife. Try it out and see if it fits your case:

1. Be considerate of her in small things. Small things make up a woman's life.
2. Remember always that everywhere in the animal kingdom kind and not sex makes difference in brain.
3. Need her and let her know it. Women understand best that it is more blessed to give than to receive.
4. Let her feel before, and particularly after marriage that she is more important than your business. You wouldn't care to be supplanted in her thoughts by constant musing over that $3.17 that slipped through her hands yesterday.
5. Before marriage kiss her as though she were your wife—afterwards kiss her as though she were your sweetheart.
6. Never abuse her confidence. Her faith in you is capital, which you will have to invest many times.
7. Compel her respect. Respect is the mother and admiration the father of love.
8. Take an interest in her affairs. You would be hurt if she took no interest in yours.
9. Devote at least a quarter of the thought to entertaining her during a lifetime that you would devote to entertaining her pretty sister half an hour.
10. Don't "nag." Men nag as much as women, and vaccination, the slow scraping away of the skin, pains more than the quick incision of the surgeon's knife.
11. Remember that she is the better half of yourself, and "to thine own self be true."
12. Be generous, not lavish. When she is your wife she is your partner.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer

A splendid tonic for the hair, makes the hair grow long and heavy. Always restores color to gray hair, all the dark, rich color of youth. Stops falling hair, also. Sold for fifty years.

Never compel her to ask for money. A woman feels dependence as much as a man would.

I have devoted as much attention to the subject of winning the woman you have won as to winning the woman you haven't. It is more important to keep the love of your wife than to create love in the object of your attentions. Eternal vigilance is the price of eternal affection.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail, free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25.

CROP REPORT.

Unprecedented Drought Prevails Over the Whole of Kentucky.

The drought prevailing in nearly all parts of the State is almost unprecedented in its severity. From nearly every county there comes the cry that stock water is scarce and stock is being driven for miles for water. In many places the streams, springs and cisterns have given out, causing a water famine for man as well as beast. There is great complaint that nearly all the grain sown for meadows have perished for want of moisture. There is also apprehension that a large part of the wheat, rye and winter oat seed will perish from the same cause. The early sown grain came up, all right, but there has not been sufficient moisture in the ground for it to make any progress. The grain sown later remains ungerminated in the ground yet. It remains to be seen what the effect will be if the drought continues much longer.

The corn crop generally in the State is a good one. Many counties report a bumper crop, while others, notably in the fourth division of the State, report an exceedingly short crop.

The acreage of wheat was not increased as expected, only a few counties reporting an increase above an average, while quite a number fall much below. The drought setting in so early that it interfered with preparing the land for wheat accounts for the small acreage sown. The amount of land seeded to rye is a full acreage. The acreage of winter oats is below the average, largely on account of the failure last season.

The tobacco was saved in good condition. Free from frost, worm-out and dirt, it ought to be a very useful crop. While the crop is not a large one anywhere, it is reported to be quite a short one in the first and fourth districts. Live stock are fully up to the standard in numbers and conditions. The apple crop for winter is less than half a crop. All things considered the farmer has many things to be thankful for, and can eat his Thanksgiving Turkey with praise to his God and self-congratulation that it might have been worse.

IN PICKLING VAT

Body of Andrew Cluttenbuck, of Kentucky, was Found.

Cincinnati Ohio, November 21.—Lee and Albert Cluttenbuck, of Gainesville, Boone county, Ky., to-day recovered the body of their uncle, Andrew Cluttenbuck, seventy-two years old, from the pickling vat in a local medical college. Cluttenbuck died at the City Hospital last Thursday. When he entered the institution he said he was without local residence and gave the name of a niece living in Shackelford, Mo., as his next friend. The niece was notified of his death, but no answer came, and when forty-eight hours had elapsed the body was sent to the potters field. This morning Lee and Albert Cluttenbuck called at the hospital to visit their uncle. They were surprised to learn that he was dead and had been consigned to the potters field, and at once set about to recover the body. With a Covington undertaker they visited the potters field only to learn that the body had been taken away by an agent of the anatomical society. Dr. W. E. Lewis was then called upon. He acknowledged that the body had been claimed for the purpose of dissection and stated that it had already been turned over to a local college. After hearing the story of the two men he called up the sexton of the college and told him to preserve the body in tact until tomorrow, when it will be turned over to the Cluttenbucks for burial at Cluttenbuck's late home in Gainesville.
